

> THE LOCAL

Designs on the renaissance of a neighbourhood

Outdoor furniture shows among businesses helping revive area east of city

As a design, the resurgence started at Richard and Deborah's. The concept: an outdoor space by Andrew Richard Design — another Toronto-based business — the highest-end manufacturer that now features Beckman's work as a feature. Beckman.

Together with their own security business, Beckman's owners have built a successful career in the home furnishings industry. They started with the outdoor furniture of the King of A. Design, which is now a part of the city's largest design and construction firm, the George Brown Centre for Design. Beckman's work as a designer and manufacturer that has led to the success of the King of A. Design.

Outdoor conversation settings, like this outdoor dining set, are made by Andrew Richard Design, an industry leader.

The George Brown Centre for Design, which is now the city's largest design and construction firm, is a key player in the area's revival.

Beckman's work as a designer and manufacturer that has led to the success of the King of A. Design.

Andrew Beckman has been a part of the community transition during the past 10 years that has seen the rise of outdoor and the Ontario Design.

of young professionals, and they're part of the city's revival. Beckman's work as a designer and manufacturer that has led to the success of the King of A. Design.

"This is an exciting time for the city. It's a great time to be here. The city is growing and the economy is strong. We're seeing a lot of new businesses and people moving to the city. It's a great time to be here."

"We're excited to see the city's revival. It's a great time to be here. The city is growing and the economy is strong. We're seeing a lot of new businesses and people moving to the city. It's a great time to be here."

"The city is growing and the economy is strong. We're seeing a lot of new businesses and people moving to the city. It's a great time to be here."

STREET NUMBERS

- 1. A new office building is set to be built on the east side of King Street East.
- 2. A new office building is set to be built on the east side of King Street East.
- 3. A new office building is set to be built on the east side of King Street East.
- 4. A new office building is set to be built on the east side of King Street East.
- 5. A new office building is set to be built on the east side of King Street East.

STREET NUMBERS

- 1. A new office building is set to be built on the east side of King Street East.
- 2. A new office building is set to be built on the east side of King Street East.
- 3. A new office building is set to be built on the east side of King Street East.
- 4. A new office building is set to be built on the east side of King Street East.
- 5. A new office building is set to be built on the east side of King Street East.

Adult Lifestyle Communities

GREAT PLACES TO LIVE

